

Ten Things Managers and Developers Should Know about Testing

A Free RBCS Webinar: 1.5 PDU Credits

Did you ever wonder why your colleagues sometimes look at you funny when you're explaining your test results, or ask you strange questions like, "Why don't you find all the bugs in testing?" Maybe they don't understand what you do or even why you do what you do. In this free webinar, Rex will reveal ten common misunderstandings that your fellow software professionals have about testing, and discuss ways to resolve those misunderstandings to promote better communication.
